before 30 June 2026	Refund of 50% of monies paid
1 July 2026 or later	No refund

Cancellation by us

BTI reserves the right to cancel the camp at any time up to 28 days before the advertised starting date. In the event of such cancellation, all payments will be refunded in full.

Program Changes

Details of camp programs are published in good faith. BTI nevertheless reserves the right to change any aspect of the camp or the program made necessary by factors beyond our control.

Camp Rules and Regulations

We expect and hope that all young people attending BTI sessions will make every effort to show respect at all times to fellow students and members of staff. The camp rules outlined below are designed to ensure that all students and staff are able to enjoy their stay in a safe environment free from unpleasant, intimidating or aggressive behavior.

Any student who consistently disobeys the camp rules, breaks the law or displays aggressive or intimidating behavior will face instant dismissal from the camp and will return home at their own expense.

- Students are expected to attend all meals, workshops, rehearsals and arranged activities.
- Any damage caused by a student to property, equipment or accommodation will be charged to the student.
- Gratuitous or willful damage to BTI property, public property or other students' property may result in dismissal from the camp.
- Smoking of tobacco or e-cigarettes is not permitted.
- Consumption or possession of alcohol by any student is not permitted.
- Consumption or possession of illegal drugs will result in instant dismissal from the camp.
- Intimidating behavior towards another student or member of staff will result in instant dismissal from the camp.
- Boys and girls may mix only in the designated recreation areas and may not enter each others' accommodation.
- Personal mobile phones must be turned off during all rehearsals and scheduled activities.

Promotional Materials

At the discretion of the Director, photographs and videos may be taken of students during the sessions and performances and may be used in promotional material for BTI, posted on our website or distributed through social media.

Insurance

Health Insurance

All students attending a BTI camp must be insured and in possession of a Carte vitale. Any medical fees advanced by BTI are to be reimbursed by the student's legal guardian upon presentation of proof of payment.

Damage or Loss

BTI accepts no responsibility in the event of damage to or theft of personal belongings.

Liability

Broadway Theater International has public liability insurance. Nothing in these terms and conditions shall operate to exclude any liability of BTI for personal injury or death caused by the negligence of the association or its employees.
